(HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... October 13, 2015) – On a beautiful morning amidst the spirit and excitement of welcomed traditions, Suffolk County Legislator Lou D’Amaro (D-Huntington Station) and other local dignitaries joined South Huntington School District board members, administrators and students for the annual Walt Whitman High School Homecoming parade and celebration. This marked the third year of the parade’s enhanced route that took it down Jericho Turnpike and through the residential community, enabling neighbors to go “wild for the wildcats” right from their own front yards! Pride was evident as spectators filled the streets all along the way.

“I am always honored to be invited to share in the exciting tradition of Walt Whitman High School’s homecoming,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “As we marched through the community, it was wonderful to witness the overwhelming spirit and enthusiasm from all those who came out to support the school. Go Wildcats!”
